TOPIC REVIEW

(1). What is the 5th industrial security revolution- it is a philosophical ideological universal existence concept, that shows there are many stages of the uniform power.

The 1st existence power would have emanated during earlier civilization, where survivalism represents the 1st uniform power wielded by the survivalist skill set to survive continually.

Its existence continued where the survivalist combined with other survivalist, created a group to better undertake protectionist designs amongst other grouping.

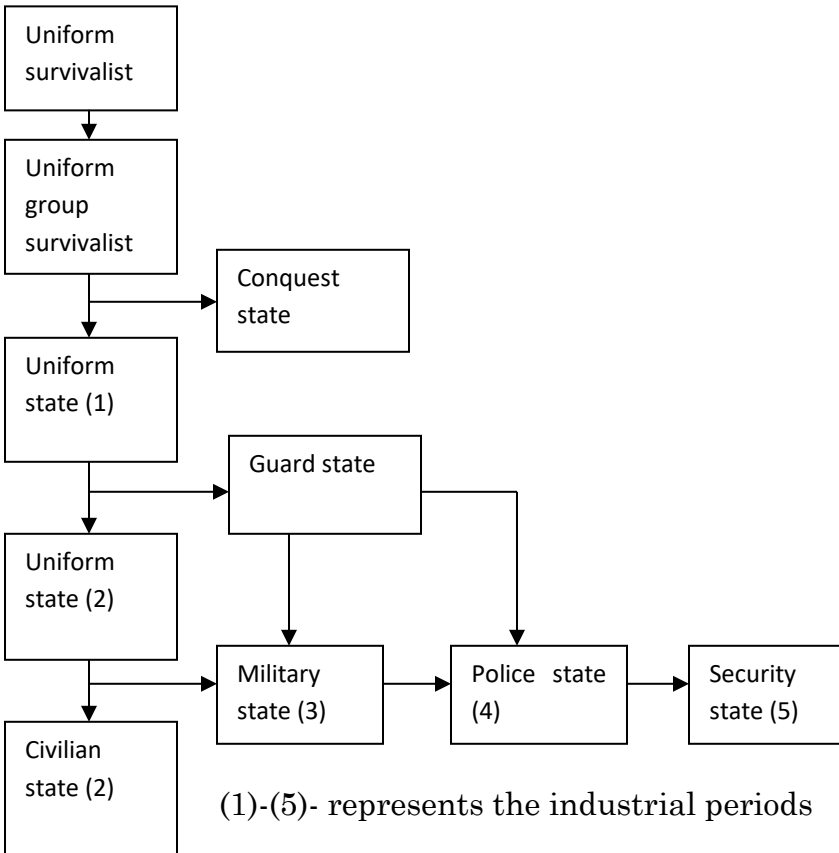

As groupings grew so did power to wield, as economics to survive became important so did conquest to dominate other culture ideology.

A representation of the uniform power became an identity, charged with the responsibility to conquer and rule and lay dominion over other cultures in the sake of economy.

As dominion grew so did the uniform manifestation of civility; as out of the uniform power came other protectionists power to law, rule and order; namely the city guards who were emanated out of the ranks of civility.

Throughout time, the separation of these two powers grew independent through operational designs, that separation of the uniform state and the civilian state were crucial to the continuation of both internal existences.

As its unification can be detrimental to long standing efforts of division to rulement. The division began its efforts of this representation shown below.

The 5th industrial security revolution is the combination of all the uniform and civilian evolutionary created state, as time passes, the security state becomes the next revolution as its appointed time focuses on state survivability and their conflict between chaos elitism and a purged society.

(2). Would this revolution improve world safety and security- the security state which is the 5th industrial security revolution is embodied with the advanced capabilities of techniques and designs which aids civility existence.

The 21st century capabilities in cyber security, cybernetics, cyber informatics and artificial intelligence is hence; the beginning outcomes to the next revolutionary stage of the uniform group survivalist mechanism.

In order for civility to continue its existence, a security state in the form of a new security world order, entrusted to lead civility in a way forward; as chaos anarchism and old industrial classical thoughtology reigns supreme over evolutionary uniformity.

(3). Is the security, police and military state all part of the security revolution- all state authority have always been part of their own revolution, during their own time phase. As colonies grew into civilized societies the introduction of a uniformity authority evolve into a division of protection.

All three states are essential during their initial creation as well as the foundation of the 5th industrial period of security today.

Its evolving mechanisms can be determined by the fuelling civility ideals, whether subconsciously and unconsciously inundated, to create a better future of civility.

However, its usage based on the historical cultures connected to the lineage pyramid of indoctrinated ideals, can sway the populist order elitism into a framework of destruction and extinction, of the very indoctrination cultures it has emanated out of for a birth of rite symbolism.

(4). Is colonization order elitism the new evolution of civilization- civil societies birthed out of a desire for order, is a form of evolution in itself. The colonization ideals remain prudent amongst state authority, to determine the best type of rulement during their phases of evolution.

A condition pre dated in history as the only source a civilization can evolve into a new one.

INTRODUCTION

There exist many types of colonization; some comes in the form of economic, uniformic, chaotic and order. All four amidst others forms civility of a nation state. In total of all civility it represents a world order.

Complete guises of intentions formulated and coerce to unify a distant chaotic citizenry, reveling in total anarchism.

Its colonized form justifies order by attacking chaos, through authoritative means and disposing of non conformist.

Non conformist which are abundant in this 5th industrial revolution; a security revolution created to improve the economic colonization into the new frontier.

As mind chaos undermines continual fertility, nation states cannot ignore the possibility to a uniform state body, to target this mind chaos from imploding into anarchic state.

Elitism chaotic or by order are not monolithic in nature but regimic in nurture. As future millenniums continue to discover the best alternate version of chaotic theory, would chose to benefit the chaotic power elitism in their awe of fronterism.

PART 1: COLONIZATION IDEOLOGICAL IDEALS

BEGINNING TOPIC

The 5th Industrial Security Revolution-
New Security World Order

Security practioners all over followed a creed to protect and serve at any cost, once their due diligence is set right. Justice for all once it is under the remit of an authority.

The uncanny citizens continue to find illusive ways to improve their statute, without the limitations of state statutes preventing otherwise.

The corrupt world set as a tool for excellence is rotting away the fabric of civility, as the existential creator of colonization; past, present and for the future, predicts that some form of peace must be established so colonization cannot be extinct.

The extinction force of dominancy over rule, law, justice, vengeance and power has created new evils one must destroy.

The world has seen too many systems destroy itself, as a futuristic new world order can improve the delineation of progress.

A progress which is now at the mercy of the old industrial revolution chaos order! “ A striking force of elitism.”

TOPIC I-

Old Order Vs Chaos Order

A world order is essential to pivot the world generational pool towards future frontierism. A frontierism destined only for the strong minds, hearts and will of the chaotic minds.

Chaos as a breath of life, fuels the devour of citizens to propel to actions what can be necessary to develop totalitarianism amongst statehood, if and only when there are anarchism actions condemning state officials rule of engagement.

Chaos used as a tool from both state and statehood, measures the force of will backed by ideological concepts of the way of life, necessary for each continual survivalist destiny of history.

A history only told about conquest, economic starvation and destruction of cultures, to continue the world order rule for immense order of chaos.

The chaos themes throughout colonization history, and the one presents, dictates that all are free once constitutionally bounded, that all chaos minded citizens adhere to the chaos state rule of security and measurability of who shall conquer and who shall obey.

A world order economically cannot survive without a world order security of its resources. As the old order of chaos presents a timeline of conquest, so does the economies of states, fuelled down to its citizens in a form of chaos theorem, destined to unearth the chaotic mine.

Action chaos represents a spring board on the back of world order, as the new colonies is fuelled by bitter conquest between states amongst states, citizens amongst citizens; within the structure of order.

Chaos meets order while order develops new order, to outweigh the societal pressures of citizens to propel anarchist totalitarianism.

A breed of new chaos elitism from state and statehood would emerge a new security order, to function as an enforcement to balance the scale of chaos order and old order-structuralism.

TOPIC II-

New Order Vs Action Order

The 21st century borne a new frontier of security, as cyber security and all its derivatives, are designed to further enhance the protectionist state functionality amongst the statehood.

As its infrastructure grew so did the aptitude of chaos emerges; as nation states grew competitively, order dominance syndrome and the continual of the greater economies.

Cybernetics as the next evolution of the uniform force is a transition to citizen's excellence and world order commandments, of expanding knowledge over multitudes of security platforms, where surveillance on predictive analysis of citizens behaving, can deter a chaotic branch from birthing new regimic terror.

Regimic terror which becomes costly to a nurturing state, as the struggle between chaotic conformist and chaotic non conformist emerge for victor of state survivalism.

As mechanism charged by the chaotic state, to develop measurability and accountability function on what is predictive; that citizens would act to a rigid system for state continuity, state infertility and state sustainability.

The new order stymied over certainty of accountability, of the race of free citizens, to act in accordance to longevity of its descendants and by will, protect the citizens' race from imploding.

The existence force ever present amongst the free republics, determines a free ultimatum to act disciplined towards free possibilities of existence.

Existentially a new security order propels the undetermined predictive anarchists, that non conformists pave a way of uncertainty and certainty; is the evolution of survivability.

The act to determination to develop microcosm colonization to unearth the birthing sensation from citizens state, that the world order dictates that all state, statehood, state institutions and state ideology, must embellish the imperfect action chaos, so used to develop chaos order elitism and adopt new elitism of evolution of certainty.

The new order represents as a destructive force, takes the lead over the action chaos ideological conscript, birthed by a history of world economies and chaos and replace with a birthing architectural colony of new ideas.

PART II

COLONIZATION ORDER ELITISM

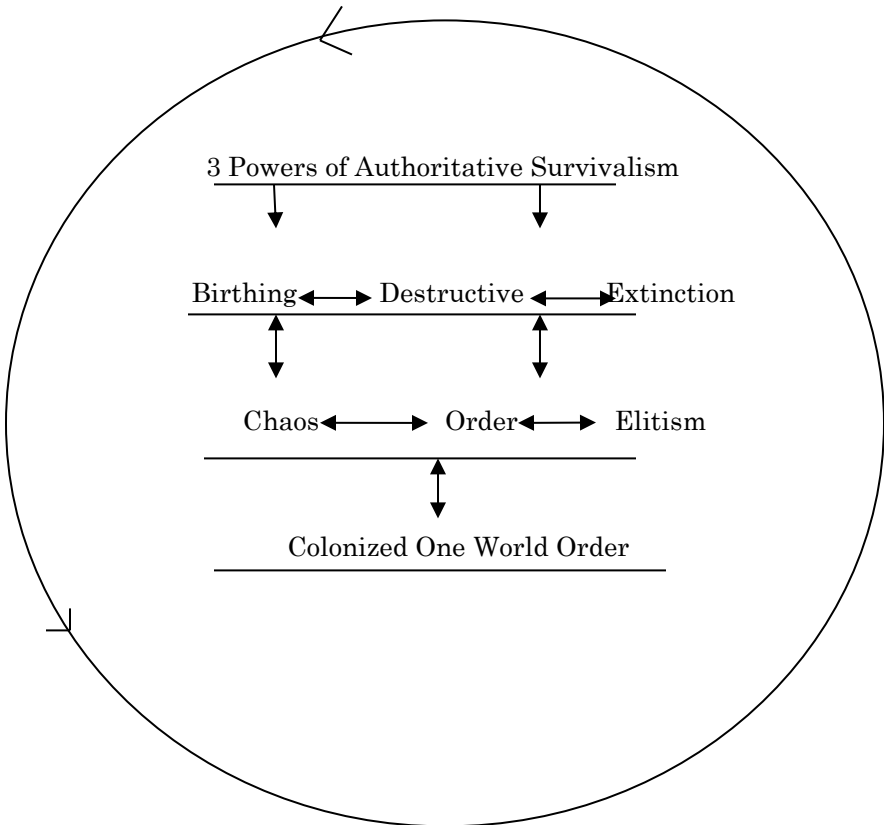

TOPIC III-

Colonization Authority

There exist three powers of authoritative survivalism elitism and they are called the birthing, destructive and the extinction powers.

Out of these three powers, come two powers of elitism; namely chaos and order elitism. The combination of these order elitism evolves into a one world order.

The system chart below shows the one world structure as explained above.

This economic system chart has been dominant and continues to be. The order of this colonized chart is in itself chaotic, as the 3 powers represents the beginning and ending of a civilized people, through chaotic division between each other, caused by the powerlitic state citizens.

As chaos conquest, chaos polarizing, chaotic destruction and chaotic economies, are ever present and the solutions of its elitism would born a new chaos principle, destined to surface amongst a new culture of people and the cycle goes on for centuries and millennium.

Order and chaos both have its privileges as those two forces of eminence are neither good nor bad, opposites or restrictive. As nation states predictive analysis entrust order to be born out of chaos and chose to be nurtured out of order.

The simplicity of the 21st century survivability nestles on the new millenniums, to develop cyber security initiatives to eliminate the old industrial security structure, which has crumbled into a chaos, splattered amongst the economies of citizens and remain non resourceful to be of substance.

Elitism of both forces further tears away civility only hope and dreams by constitutions. Unprepared on stability that security forces entrusted to be the guardian of the state, further devolve as their existence depends on the chaotic anarchist of elitism.

TOPIC IV-

The Power of Elitism State & The Uniform State

The uniform state is the solidification of an elitism state body. The type of elitism chosen to pontificate authority on statehood, is determine on best governing structure ideally, state leaders can adhere too.

Constitutionally adherence from statehood, citizens can create bitter sentiments on types of rulement; thus, chaos elitism counteracts on state order elitism, to manifest pseudo best social policies, further devolve years of conflict with social groupings and state officials.

The yearnment of the state, to divulge a society away from the ancient geopolitical purge in this new age period, requires difficult new order approaches to distinguish the reactionaries against the revolutionaries.

A uniform state citizenry of one embodiedment, one goal, one culture, one frontier strategy mimics the evolution of earlier state, which was premised on the uniqueness of statehood and to conquer-conquest, philosophical societal ideals, once inflictive and obtrusive.

Today society admires these inflictive obtrusive ideals as a form of reactionary chaos elitism, to counteract good governance practices, as these are seen as illusionary tactics, to devolve the chaos elitist society away from constitutional freedom.

As liberal's constitutional privileges are out centered as rebellious to new order change, which predicate a predated prediction that societal colony would face the biggest challenge of change, once the 5th industrial security revolution blueprints are manifested.

Its designed is one of surveillance on the elitism state, so each citizenry can be of benefittal to an order rather than challenge, a misbelief of elitist confrontation that extinction of statehood is near.

To draw further a timeline within the 21st century cyber security framework, each predestined moment of elitism draws it further, that a new security order is necessary for the uniform state authority to compel all citizens' authority, that fronterism is not monolithic.

TOPIC V-
The New Order Chaos & Indoctrination
Elitism

The historical timeline of order pre sets itself amongst the evolving groups of colonies. As colonies grew so did the appointment of a state apparatus.

A regime to call an identity, a people to call a culture, and an event through timeline to call a lineage.

Cultures are an indoctrination of regimic identity, design to distinguish the differences amongst other identities.

The rule of conquest creates a dominant line which a culture must endure to survive. As the lineage of a people rests on conquering either cultures in order to endure their own inferior identity.

Templates written about historical events of conquest and new world domination, inculcate a fiefdom identity which passes on through lineage; an indoctrination of power-elitism, chaos- elitism and order- elitism.

Indoctrination cultures yesterday, today and futuristic are difficult to suppress by nature and identifiable to harness by nurture.

The social conflict chaos of identities, pre sets a classical thoughtology of survivalism of civility and future state.

As this identifiable classical thought becomes the original only truth to survivalism today and tomorrow. Which citizen state by heart believes, is the true identifier of survivalism.

For anything else is mere illusion, designed to force citizen to submit to an authority.

Classical elitism can form into any design and fit many cultures around all nation states. Penetrating the identifiers of rule and destroying the timeline of a cultures' lineage. Setting a pre set date into a backward future society.

This push pull tactics forces the existing new world order to protect the present interested economies from destruction, as this post set date lounge into futuristic designs, while interrupting all chosen elitist societies into a new indoctrination ideology.

Non conforming into the futuristic design can pull push classical lineage culture, into a purged state of no identity and a erased history of being conquered in the conquest new order epoch.

TOPIC END

THEIR EXIST POWER ELITISM, CHAOS ELITISM AND ORDER ELITISM IN EVERY NATION STATES, TOTALING A WORLD ORDER DESIGN, DESTINED TO PRE SET ALL ECONOMIC UNIFORMITY INTO ONE DIMENSION.

A DIMENSION, UNIQUE IN ALL VERSION OF COLONIES THROUGHOUT THE OLD AND NEW ORDER. ELITIST STATES, STATEHOOD AND INSTITUTIONS ADOPT TO THE EVER CHANGING TIMES OF SURVIVALISM,

AS THE NEW WORLD ORDER SIGNIFIES A NEW REVOLUTION OF SECURITY, PRE DATED TO PROTECT THE ECONOMIES OF THE WORLD FROM THE SELF IMPOSING NATURE OF CITIZENRY AND TO CONTINUE NURTURING THE CHAOTIC —CY OF CIVILITY.

"IT IS INEVITABLE TO BELIEVE OTHERWISE, THAT THE EVITABLE SOLUTION TO CHAOS & ORDER IS THINKING ALL CITIZENS ARE PREPARED TO BE CIVILIZED."
