INTRODUCTION

Uniformity of the state authority continues to be a grave gray area in all nation states; who under a constitution vie for the respect of its constituents, to be just righted people for the sake of national building and freedom of all.

Civilized colonization has been a far left ideology which perplexed all constituents, which the introduction of a uniform authority can be under the sole control of a civil state authority.

Though doubtful, history has shown the incompetence of civil state authority to fully understand the ideological concept of the uniform state. The uniform state as a state apparatus to be the protectionist body, to incur the civil perfectionist ideals has become a debatable topic for years.

As the uniform authority can incur their own perfectionist ideals to improve a less, desirable civil ideals perfectionism to improve the uni bond, as most nation has done.

The police state is of importance in today's dialogue as this is the beginning precursor, to the security state or the new security world order into the 21st century frontierism.

This book is design to only capture the ideological concept of the uniform and civil state, and to give the reader an introduction to the philosophical underpinnings, behind the 7 ATU powers of the uniform state.

TOPIC PHRASES

Protectionists: is a psycho conscience body which functions under the derelict of a state authority, functioning as an enforcer to such state.

Perfectionists: is a psycho conscience social behavioral thoughtological idea, created by any authority to perform the will of power over a state. Instructional only by will and might, to act in rational to the perfect idea of societal norms.

Psychosis Phenoma: a state of mind transferred out of reality. Its realism of the state authority can be a measure of unrealism for the state to citizen over governing practice.

Chaos elitism: social power struggle with a framework of social norms, found deep within subcultures to enact their own symbolism of chaos. A triage of elitism of control, culture network and cultured privileges against all vested state authoritative power.

Order elitism: a state authority ideological framework, design to introduce the best citizens a society can offer for state privileges. A bargain between state and statehood, where citizens vie via ethical competitive struggles, to determine the best elitism origin can be birthed out of a purge society. "The anti opposite of a chaos elitist society."

*Topic 1 –
The Enforcers
Phenom*

Civil disobedience sprung the uniform of the enforcers, as these agents comprises of the state tools, resources and agents designed to protect and serve all its citizens.

As human beings further evolve, the de evolution of non conformists hangs a shadow over all creativity for reformation. This de evolution surrounds the individual entity appraised position to be an agent for the state, to be an enforcer of justice, truth, civil obedience and perfectionism.

The protectionist's inner dilemma in a uniform state entity, designed to be the authority of state handed down activities, which may be seen as humanistic within the non conformist discord.

The survivalism discord of civil disobedience, reactionaries and revolutionary disciples, adhere only to the state belief that all citizens are in self patriotic to the nation's growth.

This state illusionistic idea propelled all over for centuries, remain a static pigmentation of many old industrial regime created by man to be civilized.

As the protectionists face the psycho-perfectionists idea, it in turn creates its own psychosis phenoma called the "enforcers phenoma."

With rising tides of non conformists, the agents along with its authority are faced to delve in the force field of uncertainty. Propelled by its magnetism and arrays the history of a civilization, ideals and conformity interrupts the uniform force reality of perfectionism.

The civilized state authority with its continued division of the uniform holds the helm of nourishment for the uniformers, that starvation and drought may emanate during a period of time.

These measures can interrupt the uniform state perfectionists ideals; innate within its identity, thus de evolving the machinery of protectionists.

These grave interferences caused by civilian run state, creates the idealism for the “enforcer phenoma,” one which not all agents of the state uniform can “subvert.”

Reactive psychosis phenoma, delve in the uniformer to act on all non protectionists caused by non conformers, whose only embodiment is to not be part of a nation’s authority.

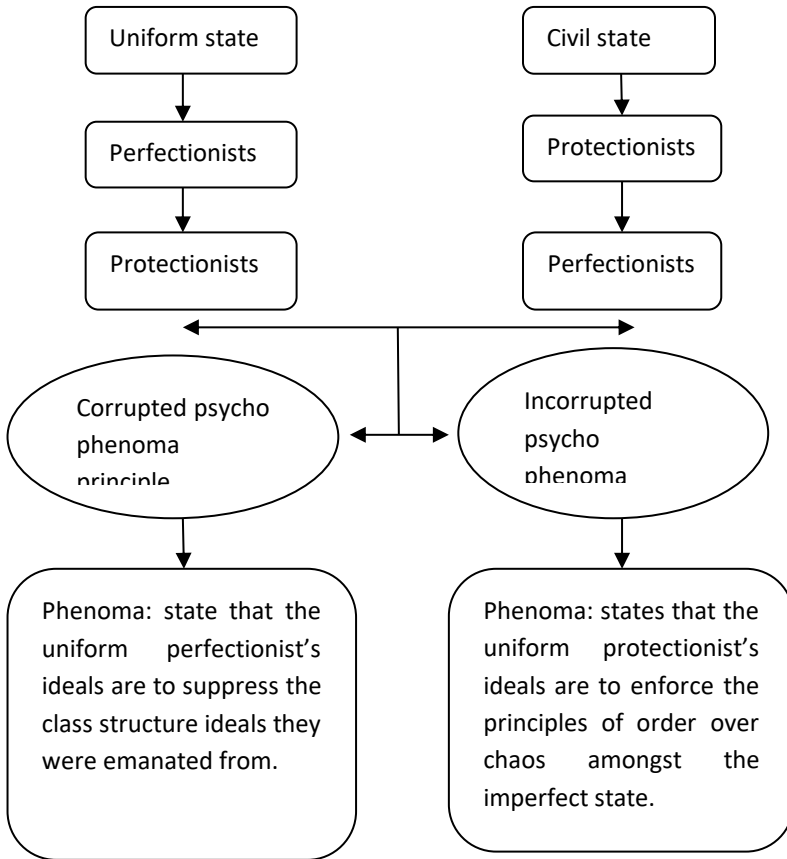

Once reacted, the uniformer is called upon to respond on its action to the civil state; where its idealism was forced by the multipliers of the state and its states men and women.

Controlled by two magnetic entities drowned by a history of de evolution, the uniformed agent can be further caught on submission by default to further psychosis destruction.

The elemental wrestling within the uniform power of the authority wielded by civil authority, creates this phenoma; this identity crisis.

Psychosis: the phenoma for both the corrupted and the in corrupted psychosis phenoma evolve around the agents of change. These agents called the subvergence and the reactive agent, can be found within both principles in the diagram shown below.

Topic 2-
The phenoma
principle

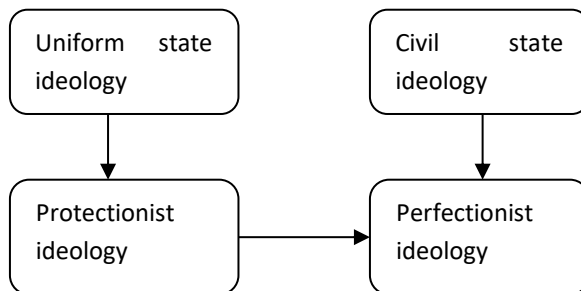

Corrupted behavior- reactive agent

The uniformer agent apprised with powers of enforcement, forces the individual agent to propel for total perfectionists, based on the civil state ideological concept, of what the uniform state should do to conform the state.

These agents reactive ability is mostly dangerous in essence to create the perfect society, the civil state entrust them to perform.

At times, these suppressant phenoma principles act concordantly with the historical designs, of the purpose of enforcers and the rule of thumb approach, to protect all statesmen and women from themselves and others.

Govern by the civil state, any irremovable thought of non concession to the principles of the protectionists, can further create the destruction of the state, by propelling the uniformer to create any or all inner ideology of what the perfect state should be.

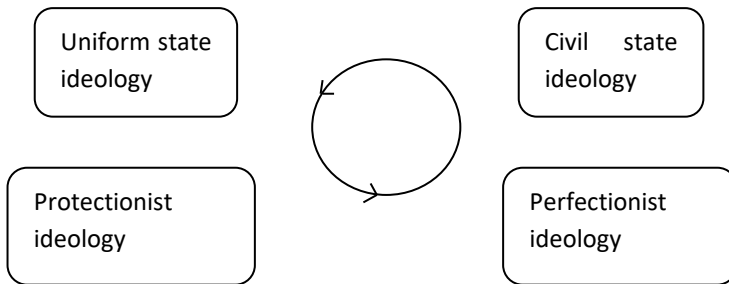

Corrupted behavior-subvergence agent

The civil state as an authority recognized the uniform protectionist ideals to create the perfect ideal state; aids in their uniform ideals code to improve the evolution of the uniform power.

Thus discouraging any unnecessary use of force; whom entrusted to protect.

The divergence of the power is subvergent to both state perfectionists outlook.

Topic 3-

In corrupted behavior- reactive agent

The state as an embodiment of the two ideological concept delves on the premise of true justice, protection and survivalism of all inner state citizenry. The uniform authority as a node is essential to the civil mantra of codes.

The coding represents the patriarch state of the civil to ensure perfectionist by the protectionist. As an emblem worn in time of chaos it is a necessary force of the agreement between the state and citizenry; obligated by the civil authority to protect its statesmen and women.

Obligation becomes a necessary as the protectionist is further forced to create this perfect society, that it attacks the perfectionist ideas governing under the uniform state, to implement the 5th Industrial Security Revolution of the uniform state.

Embellished as the security state, the third dimension under the police state, all uniform identity evolution adherence to the in corruptible behavior, reacts towards its patriarch uniform history to perfect the security state as an only necessary, for the civil perfectionism ideals.

The phenoma attached to the psychosis uniformer encourages the force to resolve the issues of serenity amongst the division of the powerlitic.

In corrupted behavior- subvergent agent

In corrupted principle sought by the uniform state inhibits the powers of the civil state, to ensure better usage of its security apparatus, without infringing on the civil liberty of its state.

The in corrupted state of the uniform becomes hegemonic for conflict and results in subvergence by the civil authority.

Recognizing that the idealism of protectionism, can affect the perfectionist viewpoint of civility, a control mechanism ensures that the uniform state are within bounds, their idealism and too further their uniform revolution can cause the de evolution of the civil state.

Compromising on the evolution of the industrial security state, can erode the relations between the state and the statehood. De evolving the protectionist can create further non conformist totality of reign amongst the civil state.

A game of perfectionism can gamble the chances of outcome, where the state of survivalism outweighs the originality of its states men and women, to create their own ideological conscript for survivalism for self.

Not holding all occupation to both the states and their ideals to improve their conditions of chaos.

A force multiplier from within, emanating outwards to its citizens depend solely on its historical backdrop of its nationalism, survivalism and protectionism dictum to resurrect the true essence of the uniform powers.

As statehood finds the difficulty to conform to the state non conformist power, over the conformist psychosis phenomena principle; invades all national view spaces on the future development of its people.

Both states battling for perfectionism in an imperfect space, conflicts the essence of evolution of the uniform. The 5th Industrial Security Revolution- the security state entrusts that all life force future, depends solely on the non combative efforts of the civil and uniform state, to act as an embodied force for justice, truth and protectionism.

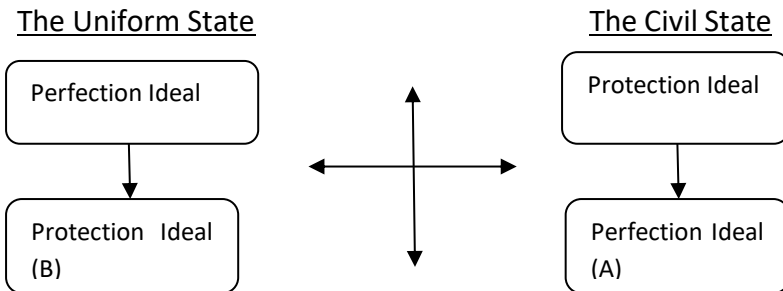

Topic 4-

The Bonding Effect

The civil state authority ideal for a perfect society, appoints law enforcers with their protectionist ideals to deliver on the social contract, of providing universal safety and security to all statesmen and women.

When the delivering approach for the civil state to provide all necessary resources, knowledge and mentality to sustain the continual growth of the uniform state; the protectionist ideals are further enhanced upwards to the 1st ideology to better the inferiority of the civil state to deliver.

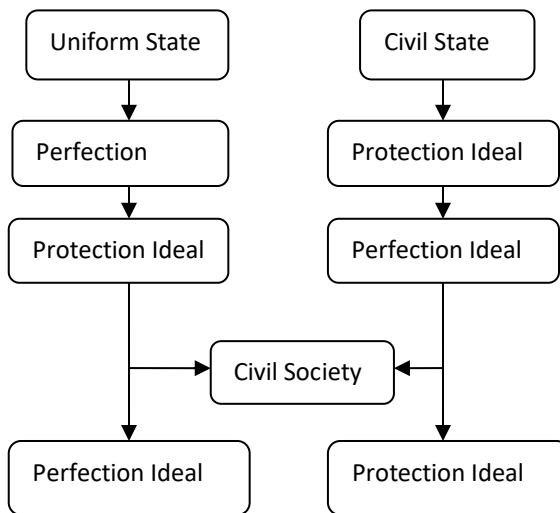

Their enhancing the perfection ideal, the civil state requires and allows the (B) cross angle to be existent. Non existence of the civil state authority will determine all civil liberty of statesmen and women for freedom of will and creates a “uni bond effect.”

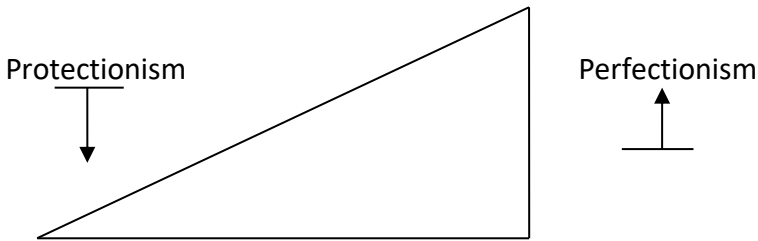

A uni bond without a civil state authority interferes with the flowdarity of the perfect state society and can inflict ingenious authority on the state citizens, to compel them that, the uniform state authority is the only genuine authority of rulement, destined to improve the society survivability.

However a uni bond without a uniform state authority encourages all citizens to be part of the system survival network of protectionist. The citizens' soldier campaign is derived where there exist, no uniform authority as the civil state authority has vested all powers to the citizens, to bear arms and protect each other and state when necessary.

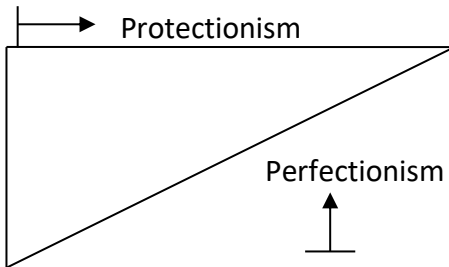

At other times during times of peace the relinquishment of a uniform state or authority are suspended until ready.

Protectionist Ideology- Far Right Triangle

Trajectory Element

Change Element= Rate Element / Determine Element

Each element located on the triangle possesses an infinite amount of opportunity for changing any element on the state. Protectionism and perfectionism are both determine elements.

Elements changed by either of the state authority are determined by their rate of effectivity on the other authority.

The Antagonist Vs The Protagonist Vs The Plague

The society's plague ferment an action from state leaders that the antagonist citizens can create inhibitions, which under non scrupulous observations can form a societal evil, borne out only for destruction.

The plagued society borne out of citizens antagonistic dream state prevents the protectionist state, to recognize which citizenry state can be trusted.

An identity crisis found within societies; uninitiated, unappreciated and an immense pressure of aggrandizement.

Society's purge elitism discovers methods to rid societal ills, creating a plague social norm, only developed by the initiated minds of the antagonist.

The antagonist by virtue represents all formalities of the populated citizens to defy order and rule for chaos and improve the state that bleed.

Mourning on the very backdrop of the protagonist to remain true, to all cause and improve all causality for the greater of the state survival.

System leaders all over develop the history of the uniform, to quantify the options of order and set its suitability title amongst the state.

The powers of the uniform, set products of discipline, truth, protection and freedom for all citizens; once acknowledging that the protagonist state only desire is to rid itself from the purging plagued society, the antagonist find freedom within.

This dream state freedom only further destroys the state functionality to be whole, as all its parts can on its own be the destructive force to chaos elitism.

Suspense for the end of chaos elitism forces the illusive protagonist to be productive, in the use of state resources to distribute via powerlitic schemes, to remind citizens that the state is one body and its parts are subjected to its control.

The societal parts functioned only by the good will of its citizens, can a nation see fruit in continual survivability throughout the purge.

Topic End

The purges of society are birthed by the continual destruction of a state authority to determine the best origin for citizens.

Whether it's the totalitarian uniform state govern by a rigid protectionist ideal or a liberal civil state, whose power is to ensure that citizens live long to see their generation birth a perfect society.

Authoritative powers remain a dilemma for the evolution of the phenoma, as the future state of nations hangs over the plea for a security state.
